In time, Billy’s mom, the friendly church ladies, and everyone else who had to see him decided that he needed to come home from the hospital, and what’s a child without a normal family? This is the story of how Billy and his mom began their road to recovery, and it’s a heart-wrenching tale that helps explain why we can’t have nice things. Their names weren’t important, but it was always Billy and his mom. He could never get enough of her. Billy was nine years old when he entered the world, and he couldn’t remember a time when he didn’t have his mother. Even the years he had with his dad, he was only allowed to be with him a few days a week, after school. His father had a way with computers. He would get so excited whenever he found an interesting article online, and he would try to talk Billy and his mother into having a computer of their own so he could 82157476af
